Christmas at sea far away from home,
no families and no heavenly snow.
Christmas at sea, visions of home,
sailing tonight all alone.

1. Black is the night on the ocean, candlelight shines on the sea, everyone's full with emotion, at home that's where they long to be.
2. Mama is reading your letter, jingle-bells ring all night long, white are the trees and the meadows and children are singing a song.

3. Midnight is near and we're praying, everyone fights back his tears,
Lord, bring them home, someone's saying, and keep them safe while they are here.
